

PHILADELPHIA FLYERS ELITE TIER I "AAA" HOCKEY

EXCITING new name and logo, but the same standard of excellence that our Virtua Hockey and Team Comcast families have known, valued and appreciated for fifteen years.

Under the same corporate umbrella as the NHL's Philadelphia Flyers, our staff works relentlessly on a daily basis to deliver a youth hockey experience that is representative of our iconic brand. Hockey development is what we do, every day.

DEVELOPMENT.....ACHIEVEMENT.....SUCCESS

We have built a proven model that provides the aspiring player with a development path leading from youth hockey to junior hockey to NCAA and Professional hockey. We reinforce the importance of academic achievement throughout this process, along with the importance of strong moral character and good citizenship. And, through this journey, our culture ensures that our players and families learn many valuable life lessons that will carry on and benefit them throughout their entire lifetime.

Philadelphia Flyers Elite youth hockey players will now represent the Flyers iconic brand, carrying on our organizational tradition of excellence, and becoming part of our hockey family. The tradition continues.....

20 Alums currently playing professional hockey in the NHL, AHL & ECHL...

12 Alums drafted by NHL Teams...

16 Alums currently playing NCAA Division I hockey...

More than 80 NCAA Division I commitments over the last 12 years...

4 alums have played for the US National Team Development Program...

Hundreds of Alums that have played Junior Hockey in the USHL, NAHL, BCHL & USPHL

We have relationships with Junior Teams and NCAA coaches throughout North America, as we have helped hundreds and hundreds of our players find a home at the appropriate "next level" along their development path. Our coaches and staff are experts in their field, as we have years and years of experience advising our families as they navigate this sometimes challenging process, while earning the trust of teams and coaches at every level.

We look forward to continuing this tradition of development, achievement and success as we enter a new era, while representing the Flyers brand!
